

“Those who sow in tears will reap with songs of joy.”
Psalm 126:5

ST.FRANCIS XAVIER HIGH SCHOOL

March, 15, 2013

School News

International Education Center

A Visit from Sister School of St. John's Institution, Philippine, 2013

Guests from Philippine

On February 22, 2013, St. John's Institution came round to make a regular visit to St. Francis Xavier High School (FXSH), a sister school in Taiwan. Led by Principal Ke Li Min, ninety students in two coaches were greeted by director Liu An Guo with the school Friendship Ambassadors and the staffs of International Education center.

The reception of the guests had been preceded with all the preparations on the host school. The school clubs sincerely had been rehearsing a variety of performances. The exhibitions of strings music, Taiwanese local opera, dancing, singing, and Honor Guard taken on by students refreshed the spirit of the guests from the long-distance journey. So were the presentations of St. John's Institution, no less brilliant with songs and dances, receiving thunder-like claps. The performers clad with colorful traditional attires likewise drew the spotlight on them, winning the intense praise from the audiences.

Traditional dance of Philippine

Vitality Gym in FXSH always plays a role in students' daily activities, so the guests were asked to start out to do a bit aerobic exercise.

After One hour of experience of physical activity, the host school prepared lunch for the guests. It was during the Chinese New Year, so, on the occasion of the season, a junior student of FXSH, Huang Bao Man, took the honor to expound on the origin of the days and related festive activities held on the Taiwan Island to them when people in Taiwan eat dumplings made of rice flour stuffed with sweet fillings.

The exchange of cultures substantially draws the friendship between the two sister schools closer. And turly the ardent passion will not ever fade away.

Sidelights on various activities

